THE WATERS BOOK

GENEALOGY OF WATERS AND ALLIED FAMILIES

Posthumous Papers

MRS. EDITH WORLEY BEATTY

In 1904, Mrs. Beatty, while living in Morgantown, W. Va., began collecting data on the Water's family history, from which she descended on the distaff side.

Her studies continued throughout her life as a spare time interest, hampered and interrupted by household duties, and many changes of residence. Failing energies prevented the conclusion of the work. Nevertheless, she organized the John, Samuel, and Richard lines, herein given.

That the results of so much care and labor should not be lost, I have done what I could to preserve them, though ill qualified. The original data, much of it pertaining to other families, I have placed in binders, and shall offer it to the Maryland Historical Society, of which Mrs. Beatty was a member from 1910 through 1947. Much has been typed and indexed to increase accessibility. In this book, the organized data will be offered to those interested, at the cost of printing and binding.

I thus hope to establish a memorial to one whose unselfish character embodied all that was best in a long line of clean and gracious stock, preserving the memory of one whose interest was in preserving the memory of others.

In Section V, from page 7 on, I have endeavored to organize the data from scattered notes, how successfully will later be determined. Much more could be done, but time grows short, and no one would be left to complete the work. In works of this class, errors abound. Where suspected, they have been interrogated.

With the passage of time, those of pioneer stock will increasingly desire to prove their lineage. It is hoped that missing data will be entered in these books by owners, to preserve it and make it accessible.

This labor of love is dedicated to two women whose gallant lives of sacrifice and devotion were beyond the praise of any man,

MY DEAR WIFE, AND HER MOTHER.

PREFACE

(Original Papers of Mrs. Edith Waters Beatty. P.A.B.)

Waters Family Records

It has been my purpose to print all obtainable facts and information concerning the descent of the tribe of Waters, and as complete a genealogical record of the descendants and intermarrying families as I could obtain.

It is my desire to preserve the family history, which with the passing years becomes scattered and lost, knowing that each year will add to its value and interest.

I have referred freely to all records of the various counties, courthouses, churches, and graveyards; to books bearing on the family, Family Bible records: and have furthered my investigations by correspondence with each branch.

The name Waters is a very old one, and from early days is to be found in the histories of both Wales, and England. There are also many of the name to be found in the north and west of Ireland.

The name is spelled variously, as Waters, Watters, Walters, Wartyr, and in English records Watterson is frequently found.

Emmerton & Waters, in their "Gleanings from English Records" (Salem 1880) say that "Robert Watter of Cundall, an eminent merchant of York, was twice Lord Mayor thereof; viz., 1591 and 1603. He entertained King James VI of Scotland on his way to London to be enthroned as King of England, and was knighted by that monarch 20th. of April, 1603. Sir Robert died 12th. May, 1612. Sir. Robert had a brother William who was also Lord Mayor of York in 1612.

The ancestor of the above was Richard Wartyr, a merchant in York, sheriff in 1431, and Lord Mayor in 1436 and 1451, and represented the city in Parliament in 1434. He had a brother, William Wartyr, Prior of Warter, Co. York, 1424, and another, Francis or Nicholas Warter, Vicar of St. Mary's, York, 1429, and Bishop of Dromore." Hubert Walter was Dean of York by the King's gift, 1186.

In Drake's "Antiquities of Yorkshire" printed 1736 is found the following: "This Anglo Saxon family, spelt Wartyr and Watur, and by the Cundall branch Water and Walter, originally of Warter, Co. York, and subsequently of Nafferton, Cranswick, and Cundall in that Co., of Wandsworth in Surrey, and of Stableford (where they are to be traced from the remote records of the court of ancient demesne, holden in the seigniory of Worfield) Cruck Meole, Hatton, Swancote, and Rudge Hall in Salop, also the Staffordshire and London, numbered among its earliest members, Walter de Warter, who in 1222 was witness to a grant by Richard de Boshale, of a caracute of land at Foxden to Whitby Abbey; Geoffrey Wautre who was witness to a grant by Jordan de Rouceby; and John del Watur, who migrated to Shrewsbury, and was a Burgess in that borough in 1404, and who was father of Richard, John, Degory, and William, all of whom were Burgesses; Degory being a member of Drapers Company, and founder of St. Mary's Almshouses there in 1444." Vol. 1 has most of the references concerning the Waters name.

Another book which gives many interesting records of various branches of the Waters family is "The Chesters' of Chiceley."

Miss E. Salisbury, Genealogist, of London, who was making some researches, states that "The actual fact of the family (of Waters) living on in Middleham for two centuries, in the same homestead, is established by parish registers and crown leases."

The Edward Waters who came to the Colonies in the ship Patience (according to Hotten's Record), landing on the eastern shore of Virginia in the year 1608, is said to have already had a brother in Virginia. The name Waters is found at an early period in Wales, and the Coats of Arms being similar, it is fair to presume that the Yorkshire family had its origin in Wales.

Quoting from "The Chesters' of Chiceley", "The indigenous families of South Wales pretend to have preserved the names of their ancestors from a period of fabulous antiquity, and those who are interested in such fabrications may read in the history of Brecon that the pedigree of Waters is gravely traced by Welsh genealogists from Cradoc Fraichfas, Cradoc of the Strong Arm, Knight of the Dolorous Tower, and of King Arthur's Round Table, through a series of heroes whose names an Englishman can never hope to pronounce."

Mrs. Emma L. Waters Reynolds of New Orleans, La., stated to me some years ago that she has in her possession full and authenticated records of the Waters family, of which she is a descendant, to 1558. She was a woman of ability, a lawyer, and spent much time abroad searching the lineage of her family.

She claims that James Methold Waters married a granddaughter of Edw. III of England, and John Waters, who was the grandson of James Methold Waters, was the York Herald at the Court of Richard III. (Richard's reign 1483 to 1485), the family continuing in the Royal favor till the reign of Chas. II. Jennings, Waters, and Holland were the Yorkshire Heralds. To quote Mrs. Reynolds, "The family is traced back to Middleham, Yorkshire, noted chiefly for Middleham Castle, called the fairest castle in Richmondshire, when White Roses nodded defiance to the Red Roses of Lancaster."

Reference is made to Middleham Castle in Bulwer's "Last of the Barons." The Will of Edward Waters of Elizabeth City was dated at Great Hornmead, Hertfordshire, Eng., August 30, 1630. Proved Sept. 18, 1630. In it he leaves his son William his lands in Virginia; directs that all lands, etc., in England, Virginia, Ireland, or elsewhere, shall be sold by the advice of his brother, John Waters, of Middleham, Yorkshire. Other legatees are wife Grace Waters, and daughter Margaret.

The brother, John Waters, who was thus made guardian of Edwards children during their minority, is conceded by genealogists to be the ancestor of the Waters of the western shore of Maryland. This John Waters was buried at Middleham in 1656, and his wife Margery was buried there in 1651. There is no direct proof that he or his son John came to this country, but the fact of the guardianship, and again the fact that the descendants of Edward and those of John have the same crest and Coat of Arms, which have been handed down, argues a probability of relationship.

John Waters, the first settler, from whom the many branches of the Western Shore descend, is shown in Hotton's Lists to have sailed from England in "The Transport", July 4, 1635, aged 29 years.

There was a John Waters who patented land in Gloucester Co., Va., in 1678, and the same year John Waters and Arabella sold land in old Rappahannock Co., Va., and again sold land there in 1679. This John and wife were living in 1685.

John Waters and wife Hester appeared in what is now Richmond Co., Va. in 1682 with three children; viz., son John, daughter Diana, other name not known. A John Waters' will is recorded in Essex Co., Va. in 1711. He was a younger man than those previously mentioned; his wife was Catherine, who seems to have been a sister of William Young. Two of his children were Catherine and Winifred.

There is on record in St. Mary's Co., Md. a will of John Waters, Probated 1692. The will of John A. Waters made and probated in Talbot Co., in 1701. John Waters paid tythes in upper part of Northampton Co., Va. in 1671 (Order Book 1671-3).

In William & Mary Quarterly, Vol. 2, page 305, is an extract of the will of Anne Waters, 1700, who says that her son John, "for divers years past has been gone to Virginia".

The Rent Roll of Anne Arundel Co., Md. states that "Waters Adventure" was surveyed 16th. June, 1676, for John Waters, "at ye forks, at ye head of West River. Possess. Widow Waters." The Will of this ancestor, John Waters, was, with other records in the Anne Arundel Court House, destroyed by a fire prior to 1706. The name of his wife is not known. It is on this land, "Waters Adventure" that we rely for proof of the continuation of this John's line.

His two known sons were John and Samuel, but undoubtedly there were others. Those positively known, and easily traceable by deeds, transfers, and Court Records are:

1. John Waters, who patented "Waters Lotte" in Anne Arundel Co., Md., in the fork of the Patuxent River.
11. Samuel Waters, who patented "Jerricoe", lying on one of the branches of the Patuxent River, Surveyed July 10, 1696.

John Waters, patentee of "Waters Lotte" (Located near present Ellicott City), married Elizabeth Giles of Pr.Geo.Co., sister of John Giles, Gent. A migration from Anamessex River to West River, A.A. Co. was in accordance with the habits of those early days, when water travel was easier than land journeys. (See Sec. II, p. 5)

Samuel Waters, of "Jerricoe", B. abt 1640 m. Sarah Arnold, daughter of Richard and Martha (Thomas) Arnold, and had issue Samuel Waters Jr., called also Samuel Waters 2nd., who married Jane Dunster Jan. 7, 1706/7, and had issue William, B. May 7, 1716, who married Mary Harris in 1747. Their issue, William Waters Jr., B. Dec. 25, 1751, married Susannah Magruder, daughter of Col. Zadok Magruder and Rachel (Pottinger) Bowie. (See Sec. III, p. 23, and Sec. V, p. 80.)

SECTION I

Edward Waters and his Descendants

According to Hotten's Record, 1600-1700, p. 253, Edward Waters of Yorkshire, England, landed on the eastern shore of Virginia. "Mr. Edward Waters, his muster, Edward Waters aged forty," in "The Patience" 1608.

From the Va. Historical Magazine, Vol. 1, 1893-94, we find that "Edward Waters had a most varied and adventurous life. He left England for Va. in the same ship with Yates and Somers. The terrible storm they encountered, and wonderful escape, after being wrecked on the Bermudas, are well known incidents in the settlement of Virginia."

Hotton's list also states that Grace Waters, aged 21, came to Virginia in "The Diana," 1618. Va. Carolorum, page 410, says, "In 1610 Edward Waters refused to leave the Bermudas, being one of two men shipwrecked there." In 1618 Grace O'Neill arrived in the Bermudas, being 16 yrs. of age. Edward Waters and Grace O'Neill were married, and they moved to Elizabeth City Co., Va. There is a discrepency of five years as to the age of Grace, but as Hotton is considered better authority than Rev. E. D. Neill, his dates are used herein.

Grace O'Neill's mother lived in London. "During the massacre of 1622 Edward and his wife were captured by the Nansemond Indians, and taken to the mouth of that river, from which they seemed to have little chance of escape; but one day an empty boat belonging to some English vessel happened to drift ashore, and in their rejoicing over it, the Indians relaxed their guard upon the prisoners so much that they were enabled to secure a canoe and escape to Kequotan" Quoted from Va. Historical Magazine, Vol. 1, 1893-4.

Edward [1] offered his services to the Colonial Government in a military capacity, and served with much distinction. He held the rank of Captain. He was Burgess in 1625, and was appointed Commander and Commissioner of Elizabeth City in 1628.

Vol. 2, page 179, Abstracts from Va. Land Patents, gives Edward Waters of Elizabeth City (Lease for 10 years) 100 acres in Elizabeth City, being part of the Strawberry Banks, and abutting easterly on a creek called "Thomas his Creeke", towards the precincts of Buck Roe, October 20, 1628.

Mr. H.E. Waters, in his "Gleanings" gives the following abstract from the will of Edward Waters [1] on record at Somerset House, London. "Will of Edward Waters of Elizabeth City, Gent; dated at Great Hornmead, Hertfordshire, Eng., August 20, 1630.

He leaves his son William [2] his lands in Vigrinia; directs that all goods etc., in England, Virginia, Ireland, or elsewhere shall be sold by the advice of his brother, John Waters of Middleham, Yorkshire.

Other legatees are wife Mrs. Grace Waters, and daughter Margaret[2]."

He directs that he be buried in the Church or Chruchyard at the place of his death. On the 18th. of Sept., 1630, administration was granted to John Waters, brother of the deceased, during the monority of William his son. His children William Waters [2] and Margaret Waters [2] were both born in Virginia.

William Waters [2] had the title of Lieutenant Colonel. He was born about 1619. His Will was dated October 6, 1685; Probated July 29, 1689 (Vol. Orders, Wills, Etc., No. 12, page 451, Northampton Co. Va. records). This William [2] was a very prominent colonist. He was Burgess of Northampton co., Va. 1654 (See Va. Histor. Soc. Collection, Vol. 5, page 66). He was Commander of Northampton, which included in his official position that of Presiding Judge or Chief Justice, and he served as such for many years. He was elected High Sheriff on March 30, 1652 (See Vol. 4, page 63 Northampton Co. Va. records).

He acted as Surveyor and Commissioner on the part of Northampton, to run the Boundary Line between that Co. and Accomac, in 1652. His residence was situated not far from the present site of Cape Charles City, in Northampton Co., Va. There is evidence of his having married at least three times, and he survived all three wives.

His sons William [3] and Edward [3] were the eldest of his children, and were probably by different wives. William[3] was almost certainly the son of Margaret (The widow Clarke) for he was born before 1656, as is shown to be the fact in entry, wherein Lieut. Col. William Waters was appointed guardian of the daughters of Col. Stephen C. Charlton. He settled Charlton's estate, and was designated "William Waters, Senior, on 18th. July 1656., Vol. 7, page 29, Northampt. Co., Va. records. All of his children were under age at his death, except William[3], whom he apptd Executor of his Will. His first wife was Katherine. His second wife was Margaret, widow of Mr. George Clark. They were married 1651, and she died before 1664. His third wife was named Dorothy. The Northampton records show that William Waters [2] is described in 1646 as son and heir of Edward Waters [1] of Elizabeth City; that in 1652 his mother was Mrs. Grace Robins, she having married, 2nd., Col. Obedience Robins, of Cherrystone (Born 1601, in 1632 Member of 1st County Court of Accomac.)

William Waters [2] was a man of wealth and influence. He patented land in Somerset Co., Md. as early as 1663. His mother, Mrs. Grace Robins died in 1682. William's second wife was daughter of Richard Marriott of England (Towester), and was mother of his son Richard. He left six sons; Edward [3], William [3], Richard [3], John [3], Thomas [3], and Obedience[3]. His Will on file in Northampton Co., Va., was probated 1689. It is a very long and interesting one, mentioning many relatives and friends, but nothing of his sister Margaret[2].

His three sons, Thomas[3], Obedience[3], and Edward[3], left no heirs (As shown in a deed, Liber L, page 646, dated March 7, 1701, Somerset Co. records), and according to the terms of their father's Will, their inherited lands passed to William[3], John[3], and Richard[3]; William to receive the house and lands in Northumberland Co., Richard and John the lands in Somerset Co., Md. When Lieut. Col. William Waters entered these lands, the boundary between Maryland and Virginia was not as definite as now, and he having entered them at the Va. land office, found afterward that they lay in Maryland.

John Waters (Edw. William) settled in Maryland. He married Mary Maddox. His Will was signed March 2, 1708, Probated June 15, 1708, and mentioned Lazarus Maddox as his father-in-law. He names his "Eldest son John Waters," and leaves him the home plantation situated upon Great Anamessex River, in the Co. of Somerset, Md. He names his second son William Waters, his son Edward Waters, his daughter Sarah Waters, his brother Richard Waters. He also leaves to Richard Tull 120 acres of land called "Waters Wood", in Co. of Somerset, Md. He mentions his wife, and his cousin Arthur Denwood.

Richard Waters (Edw., William) of Somerset Co., Md., married Elizabeth Lyttleton, daughter of Colonel Southey Lyttleton of Nandera. His will was signed April 21, 1720, probated July 12, 1720. It gives "Unto my son William Waters all the tract called 'Waters River' on which my dwelling now stands. Unto my cousin John Waters 70 acres of marsh land. My sons Richard and Lyttleton. My brother William Waters my sloop called Elizabeth. My two sons Richard and Lyttleton to the care of Richard Hill and Thomas Caulkley of Phila." Mentions "the Estate I have in England left me by my uncle William Marrott, late of Co. Webster, now in the hands of W. Cooper and J. Doe."

William Waters (Edw., William) was Naval Officer for Accomac Co. in 1713, for Northampton 1718. Mentioned by will of his brother Richard in 1720 as living. He died in 1721, April.

William Waters (Edw., Wm.,John) was the second son of his parents, John & Mary Maddox, and they lived in the Annimessex region of Somerset Co., Md.

He married May 10, 1739, Rose Anne Harmanson, daughter of Col. Geo. Harmanson of Northampton Co., Va. and Elizabeth Yardley his wife, who was a daughter of Capt. Argall Yardley, who was the eldest son of Sir. Geo. Yardley and Temperence West, Lady Yardley, or Yeardley, as the name was spelled by him. Mar. Lic. was issued by Clerk of Court for Northampton Co., Va., May 10, 1739.

Rose was reared in "Old Town Neck", at a residence yet known at Yeardley. Now owned (1906) by heirs of the late Jno. Evans Nottingham, Dec'd. Her mother heired it from her father's estate. It was the home of her grandfather, and a part of the 3700 A. granted to Sir. Geo. Yeardley at Hungars, and is a lovely situation on Mattewaman Creek, about three miles from Eastville, Va.

William died 1781. His will was signed in November, 1780, and Probated January 16, 1781. (Vol. E.B. No. 1, pge 142, Som. Co. Wills).

He left a widow, and as only one wife has been accorded him in family or Court Record, she was probably Rose, though her name is not mentioned in his Will or Probate.

Their children were William, who heired the home place, George, who inherited land called "Bear Ridge"; Thomas was bequeathed $1000, some negroes and other property, son Richard, and daughters Margaret Savage, and Sarah Done, also received negroes and other property.

Richard Waters was an Officer in the Revolution of 1776, and member of the "Cincinnati".

William Waters (Edw., William, John, William), married Sarah Hayward, March 29, 1763, and had issue;

William Hayward Waters. Born Jany 7. 1767.
Margaret Waters. born March 24. 1769.
Mary Hayward Waters, born February 4th., 1771.
Edward Marriott Waters, born March 19, 1773.
Sarah Harmonson Waters, born December 19, 1774.
Richard Waters, born December 20, 1779.

William Hayward Waters, married March 29, 1763, Ann Jacob, daughter of Robert Clark Jacob and Ann. Issue of Wm. Hayward Waters and Ann. Ann Stratton Waters, born April 21, 1791.

Margaret Waters, nothing further known.
Mary Hayward Waters, nothing further known.
Edward Marriott Waters, nothing further known.
Sarah Harmonson Waters, nothing further known.
Richard Waters, nothing further known.

George Waters (of Wm. & Rose) was born May 13, 1741/2, married. Elizabeth Handy, daughter of Capt. Robert Handy and Ann., had issue, Thomas Waters, born 1770.
Elizabeth Waters, born March 7, 1774.
John Waters, born March 4, 1779. D. Mch. 1823.
Nancy (called "Peggy"), born 1780.
Rosey Ann Waters, born October 13, 1783.
Sarah Waters, born 1786.

The Will of George Waters is dated October 12, 1795. Probated November 10, 1801. (Vol. E.B., No. 23, p. 40, Somerset Co. Records).

Elizabeth Handy Waters, born July 31, 1749. Her father Capt. Robert Handy was a member of the House of Burgesses, and also of the Court for Northampton Co., Va., and of high social position. The Handy's were Animessex people, in Somerset Co., Md., as well as the Waters family. In her father's will which was not dated, but was probated October 18, 1765 (Vol. J.W. No. 3, P. 103, Worcester Co., Md. records), he mentioned his wife Ann Handy, his father Ebenezer Handy, sons Ebenezer and Robert Handy, and daughter Betty who was then under 16 years of age.

George Waters was at the time of his death, trustee for children of Capt. John Savage of Accomac Co., Va., who were also children of his sister Margaret, as shown in his father's will. He was Exr. of Capt. John Savage's estate.

SECTION II

John Waters of "Watters Lotte" and his Descendants

JOHN WATERS. Sailed from England on The Transport July 4, 1635 aged 29. (Hotten's List) "Waters Adventure" was surveyed June 16, 1676, for John Waters, at "ye head of West River, Possession widow Waters."

He married and left two sons, probably more. His will was destroyed by the burning of C.H., A.A.Co., Md., before 1706.

Those known, John and Samuel, left properties, which mark the line of descent.

JOHN WATTERS. Patented "Waters Lotte" in A.A.Co. "in the fork of the Patuxent" - (near Ellicott City., Md.) W.M. Nov. 27, 1703; W. P. June 13, 1704, Lib. P.L. 8, 456, Md. Cal. Wills, Vol. 3, 246.

HARRY WOODWARD DORSEY WATERS, B. 1813, m. Jan. 24, 1837, Prudence Jane Griffith, B. July 21, 1816, D. Dec. 21, 1853, (dau. Major Greenberry Griffith, of First Alexandria Artillery, War 1812-14, and his wife, Prudence Jones, dau. of Major Charles Jones, and his 2nd. wife, Prudence Hawkins Shum, dau. of Joseph Hawkins of Providence, R. I.

Major Greenberry Griffith was presented a sword & engraved gold medal for his services in War of 1812-14. He was a farmer of near Goshen, Mont'g. Co., Md. Born May 20, 1787, he m. Prudence Jones Feb. 24, 1814, D. Oct. 25, 1848, and is buried on farm near Goshen known in 1904 as the Best property.

There were large marble tombstones to him and others of his family buried there, but his had fallen and was lying in a corner. The family plot had been in the enclosed garden, but the subsequent owner had turned that part into a field he was ploughing the day I visited it in 1912. He said the horses had knocked the tombstone over in turning a corner. (Pencil note to above by Mrs. E.W.B.) Later (20 years) the graveyard was gone entirely--a few vestiges of the many tall white stones were near by. I was told the renters had broken the stones, and used them in a fence, and turned their hogs into the graveyard. Alas! Not a sign of the graves remained.

Major Charles Jones was born Feb. 2, 1758, in Drogheda, Ireland. He fought under O'Connor in the Irish Rebellion. He was married there to Catherine Metcalf Jan. 1, 1780, and had children, Thomas, Elizabeth, Catherine. His wife Catherine died Oct. 21, 1794, en route to the Colonies with the children, whither he had come in 1793.

The following account I received from my great-uncle, Joseph Thomas Griffith, who received it from his mother, Prudence Jones, the daughter of Charles Jones (by his 2nd. marriage.)

"Charles Jones was living near Dublin, Ireland, and took an active part in the Irish Rebellion. The English put a price upon his head, and to save his life he must find means to leave the country. Disguised as a fisherman, he whiled away the time a mile or more from his home, and his wife, disguised, brought him food and information.

He was a Mason, and his wife negotiated with a sailing vessel about to sail for the Colonies, whose captain was her husband's friend and fellow Mason, and could be relied on. The captain agreed to take him aboard when ready to sail, after the inspection by the British authorities. Directed to approach the ship after night and conceal himself under the side until the bell rung for departure, which would also signify completion of the inspection, the bell rang, a rope was lowered, and he was drawn up in time to see the feathers in the caps of the departing British Officers.

The British came searching for him at his home, and Catherine, sorrowing, yet happy at his departure, told them he was no longer in the United Kingdom; not believed, a search was made, with much destruction of property, and thrusting of bayonets through costly wardrobes. She was then compelled to swear that he was no longer in the country, their property was confiscated, and as soon as possible, she left, with her children, for America, but died at sea."

Major Jones commanded Dist. of Columbia Volunteer Troops. He married 2nd. Mrs. Prudence Hawkins Shum, (dau. of Joseph Hawkins, of Providence, R. I.)and Prudence was the youngest child of that union. The second marriage was Dec. 24, 1795. Major Jones died Oct. 11, 1811, was buried in Congressional Cem., Washington, D. C., and his 2nd. wife is buried in the same grave. He was the son of Thomas Jones, B. 1730, and his wife Hannah. Their Irish estate was named "Lochmere". He was Sheriff of County South. His father was Robert Jones, native of County Brecknock, Wales, who emigrated to Ireland in 1690.

The above statements from Col. Spencer C. Jones and Joseph Thomas Griffith, grandsons of Charles Jones. Cousin Spencer owned the original daguerreotype of Major Charles Jones, also the Family Bible of records. His daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones Falvy now has them, and lives in her father's old home in Rockville, Md. (She and her husband, now dead, and home sold. (1948). Mrs. Prudence Hawkins Jones, (wife of Charles,) D. Oct. 13, 1834.

GREENBERRY GRIFFITH WATERS: B; Sept. 26, 1841, D. Dec. 14, 1864.

Mrs. Susannah Magruder Waters Worley

Left home to join Confederate Army in summer of 1861; joined Company K., First Regt. Virginia Cavalry, under Capt. Gustavus Dorsey. Horse shot from under him in an engagement, he obtained a furlough to return home for another. He and a friend, Charlie Lepper swam the Potomac River, and had reached old Mr. Charles Wood's farm, almost in sight of home, when they heard the command "Halt."

Arrested by a Union officer, they were taken to Ft. McHenry, lodged in an old stable, and tried as spies, though in full Confederate uniform when captured. There being no incriminating evidence, they were imprisoned for refusing to take the Oath. Waters contracted typhoid, was removed in a downpour of rain to a dormitory. He died Dec. 14, no notice being sent his family. Uniform and belongings confiscated, he was buried in an old sheet.

A lady whose son was ill in the next bed called to see him, and inquired for "young Waters." She sent word of his death to his father, who had the body moved to the old burying ground on the Dorsey Homestead. This is in a field back of the dwelling, two miles east of New Market, Md. on the north side of the Frederick Pike. The H.W. Dorsey Waters home was on a high hill beyond the R.R., directly opposite, on the south side of the pike. There are marble tombstones erected to most of those interred there.

SECTION V

Edward Dorsey and his Descendants

From M.S. possessed by Mrs. Laura Griffith - (E.W.B.)

1. Edward Dorsey, the ancestor of this family, arrived in Maryland in the year 1650 or earlier; and settled in Anne Arundel Co. Nov. 11, 1650 a warrant for 200 acres of land was granted to "Edward Dorsey of Anne Arundel Co", and in Feby 1651 a warrant for 400 A. was granted jointly to Capt. Norwood (John) and the same Edward Dorsey. April 22, 1667 Edward Dorsey conveyed his interest in these two warrants amounting to 400 A. of land, to Geo. Tate of A.A.Co. (Land office, Lib. 11, fo. 98).

Also, on the 17th May, 1667, "Edward Dorsey of A.A.Co." assigns to Cornelius Howard a warrant for 350 A. of land (Ibid. lib 10, fol 498).

Some time before this he was married and had a family though the name of his wife does not appear. A certain Thomas Gates in his will (Dated 2 May 1659, Prov. 3 Aug. 1659) provides that "Edward Dorsey's children shall have free outlet through his plantation for their cattle as formerly (Test. Proc. 1 B, Fol. 60)".

Edward Dorsey died between 1667 and 1681, leaving issue:

1. Edward Dorsey, born Married 1st. Sarah Wyatt; 2nd. Margaret Larkin. He died 1705.

2. ii Capt. John Dorsey, born married Pleasance Ely.

iii Joshua Dorsey, born Married Sarah Richardson of Lawrence, Will 1666, (d. 1701). She mar. 2nd. Thos Blackwell (d. 1700) of A.A.Co.

2. Capt. John Dorsey, son of Edward Dorsey, first appears in 1691, as party to a deed. 24th. Aug., 1664 a tract of 400 a. in A.A.Co., called Hockley-in-the-Hole was patented to Edward, John, and Joshua Dorsey, and as they were in all probability minors at the time, the patent was doubtless procured for them by their father Edward Dorsey. 6th. Dec. 1681, Edward Dorsey, of Anne Arundel Co., Gent, "son and heir of Edward Dorsey late of said Co. deceased" conveys his interest in this tract to his brother John Dorsey, who also has a deed of even date from his brother Joshua Dorsey for the latter's interest in the same land (A.A.Co., lib. I.H.no. 3, fol. 62-65.)

The name of this tract is evidently taken from "Hockley-in-the-Hole", a place in Warwickshire, England; and it is probable that this was the English home of the family. It is also to be noted that a certain Edward Dorsey, of the County of Warwick, was brought before the Committee for compounding 13th Nov., 1651 (Cal. Committee for the advance of money, 1408), but this could not have been the Maryland immigrant, since he was here at least a year earlier.

Captain John Dorsey was one of the justices in A.A.Co. in 1694 (Md. Arch xx, 138), 1692 (ibid 466), and 1697 (ibid xxiii, 128). He was one of the representatives for A.A.C. in the Assembly 1692-3(Md. Arch. xiii, 351; xix, 4) and 1701-1704 (ibid. xxiv. 128. 233, 295, 856), and is styled Captain in 1701. He was a member of the Council of Md. 1710-1715 (Ms. Journals). 18th Jany, 1714-15 "Capt. Jno. Dorsey is unable to attend a Council meeting on account of indisposition" (Md. Arch. xxv, 294) and 3rd. Sept. 1715"Jno. Dorsey, Esq. lately deceased" was one of the twelve members of the Council (ibid 319). Capt. Dorsey was one of the Commissioners for laying out Annapolis in 1694 (Md. Arch. xix, 111). He receipts for as Capt. 15th. June 1695 (Ibid xx 271), and signs as a military and civil officer of A.A.Co., in 1696 (Ibid 54).

He married Pleasance Ely, "whose name", says an old genealogy of the family, "was by no means an indication of her disposition". In his will, dated 26th. November, 1714; proved 22nd March 1714-1715 (Annapolis Lib.14, folio 26) Captain Dorsey styles himself "John Dorsey of Baltimore County, Esq." He mentions his wife Pleasance; his grandsons John and Edward Dorsey sons of his deceased son Edward, both minors; his two grandsons Charles and William Ridgely, both minors, sons of his daughter Deborah; his grandchildren Martha, Eleanor, and Edward Clagett, children of said daughter Deborah; his grandchildren Richard, Samuel, Achsah, Sophia, and Basil, Children of his son Caleb; and his daughter Deborah. Testator's son Caleb is appointed Exr.

Captain John Dorsey and his wife Pleasance Ely had issue:

3. i Edward Dorsey, Died 1701; married Ruth.
ii Caleb Dorsey, born 11th Nov., 1683; died 1742; married Eleanor Warfield iii Deborah Dorsey, born , married 1st. Charles Ridgely (died 1705) mar. 2nd. Richard Clagett.

3. Edward Dorsey, son of Captain John Dorsey, was probably born about the year 1677. According to an indenture recorded in the records of the Provincial Court of Md. (Lib. W.R.C.#1, fol. 724) and dated the 1st of May 1694, Edward Dorsey, son of John Dorsey of Md., was apprenticed for four years, with his father's consent, to Richard Hill of the Province of Md., commander of the good ship "Hope", to learn the art and mystery of navigation, & c. Indentures to this sort usually ran until the apprentice was 21 yrs. of age, and supposing this to have been the case here, the birth of Edward Dorsey must have occurred in 1677. He died in 1701, being then about 24 yrs. old.

25th. Nov. 1701, Ruth Dorsey, widow of Edward Dorsey, late of A.A. Co. deceased, was granted administration on the estate of her late husband, and gave bond in 500 pounds, her sureties being Philip Howard, Jr., and Cornelius Howard (Test.Proc., lib.xix,fol 32). The widow, Ruth, was probably a Howard, and may have been a daughter of Samuel Howard who died in 1702. She married before 1703, John Greeniff. 4th. Nov. 1703, account of John Greeniff and Ruth his wife, administrators of Edward Dorsey (Balto. accts lib 2, fol. 2281). Jno. Greeniff died about Dec. 1708. His will dated 30th. Oct. 1708, prov. 18th Jany 1708/9 (Balto. lib. 1, fol 26) mentions his wife Ruth; his daughter Katherine; John and Edward Dorsey, sons of my wife; and friends Thomas Hammond and wife Rebecca.

Mrs. Ruth Greeniff survived her second husband also. 30th. July 1712, additional account of Ruth Greeniff administratrix of Edward Dorsey, son of Capt. Jno. Dorsey, deceased (Balto. Accts. lib 2, fol 30) Edward Dorsey and his wife Ruth had issue:

4 i Captain John Dorsey, Jr., Born , died 1761, married Elizabeth .

ii Edward Dorsey, born , died 1767, mar. Sarah dau. of Launcelot Todd.

4. Capt. (Patuxent) Jno. Dorsey, Captain in Co. Militia 1742 (Md. Histr. Mag.) son of Edward and Ruth, was probably born about 1699. His father, as we have seen, came of age about 1698, died 1701; so Capt. John and his brother Edward were probably born 1699 and 1701 respectively, though it is possible they were born a year or two earlier. Capt. Dorsey lived on Elk Ridge, in A.A.Co., and was Capt. in the Co. Militia in 1742 (Md. His. Mag. i, page 75). The will of John Dorsey, Jr., of Elk Ridge,A.A. Co., is dated 15th June 1761, proved 8th. Sept. 1761 (Annap. lib. 31, fol 561). In it he mentions his son Samuel, sons Benjamin, John, and Basil Dorsey; his daughters Rachel Hall, and Lucy Dorsey, and wife Elizabeth. Test. wife Elizabeth and his son Basil are apptd. Exrs.

The will of Mrs. Elizabeth Dorsey, widow of Captn. John Dorsey, of Elk Ridge and A.A. Co. is dated 25th Jany 1775, proved 23 March 1777 (Annap. lib. 41, fol 421). She devises personalty to her dau Lucy Dorsey; the residue of her estate to be divided among her nine children, viz: Ely, Basil, Benjamin, John, and Samuel Dorsey, Ruth Talbot, Rachel Ridgley, Deborah Dorsey, and Lucy Dorsey; my dau Lucy Dorsey, and my friend and nephew John Dorsey, merchant, executors.

Capt. John Dorsey and his wife Elizabeth had issue:

* i Samuel Dorsey, mar. Eleanor Woodward.

ii Benjamin Dorsey, mar. Sarah Dorsey.

iii John Dorsey, mar. Mary Cumming.

iv Basil Dorsey, mar. Hannah Crockett.

v Ely Dorsey, d. 1794, mar 1st. Mary Crockett, 2nd Deborah Dorsey.

vi Lucy Dorsey,

vii Ruth Dorsey, mar. Talbott.

viii Rachel Dorsey, mar. 1st. Wm. Hall, 2nd ---Ridgely.

ix Deborah Dorsey.

5 Ely Dorsey, son of Capt. John and Elizabeth, was twice married. His 1st. wife, mar. before 1748, was Mary dau. of John Crockett of Balto. Co. 9th. Oct. 1748. Mary Dorsey and Ely Dorsey her husband, both of A.A.Co., convey to John Greeniff Howard of Balto.Co., 41 acres, part of Isle of Capers, on N. side of the Little Falls of the Gunpowder, in Balto. Co. The deed recites that said tract, the Isle of Capers, was patented to John Crockett of Balto. Co. who died intestate, and thus said tract descended to his son and heir, John Crockett, Jr. The said John Crockett died intestate and without issue; and so said tract descended to his two sisters and co-heirs, viz; Mary wife of Ely Dorsey, party to these presents; and Hannah Crockett, the other sister and co-heir (Balto. Co.lib t.R. no C, fol 104). Another deed dated 31st Aug. 1751, shows that Hannah Crockett married Basil Dorsey (Ibid T.R. no D fol 180).

The 2nd wife of Ely Dorsey was Deborah, dau. of Caleb Dorsey and Eleanor his wife. Deborah was born 25th. Nov. 1722, and the date of her birth and the fact of her marriage to Ely Dorsey are entered in the Dorsey family records.

She was living at the time of her husband's death in 1794, and was Executrix of his will. Caleb Dorsey, her father, was son of Captn. John Dorsey (d. 1715) and Pleasance. Caleb was born 11th. Nov., 1683, died in 1743, leaving a will recorded at Annapolis. His wife Eleanor, dau of Richard Warfield was born 10th July 1685, and died in 1752.

Caleb Dorsey was a Justice of A.A.Co. 1718-1719-1722, (A.A.Co. Court Record.) Ely Dorsey died 1794. By his first wife, Mary Crockett he had a son.

i John Crockett Dorsey, born mar. Elizabeth Robinson, and had issue:

ii By his 2nd. wife, Deborah Dorsey, Ely Dorsey had issue:
Capt. Ely Dorsey of Fred. Co., Md. Died 1821.

6 iii Amos Dorsey, Died 1753, mar. Mary dau of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Worthington) Dorsey.

iv Elizabeth Dorsey, mar. Ridgely.

v Eleanor Dorsey

vi Caleb Dorsey, mar. Dinah, dau of Dr. Joshua Warfield.

CAPT. ELY DORSEY, son of Ely and Deborah, was an officer in the Revolution. 20th May 1776 the Committee of Safety passed an order to deliver ammunition to Lieut. Ely Dorsey for the use of Capt. Watkins' independent Co. (Md. Arch. xi 432). He was doubtless 3rd. lieut, a grade which then existed, since on the 5th Sept. 1776, Ely Dorsey was commissioned 2nd. lieut. of an independent Co. (Md. Arch xii, 257). Between this date and 1777, Ely Dorsey entered the 2nd. regiment, Md. Line, and was taken prisoner in some engagement, since the Muster Rolls (Md. Arch. xviii, 616) record that "Lieut Ely Dorsey of the 2nd. Regt. was exchanged 27th. Sept. 1777. He was soon promoted, and 26th Jan. 1778, the Commissary of Stores is ordered to deliver to Capt. Ely Dorsey of the 2nd Regt. 10 yds swanskin and 7 yds linen, while 26th June 1778 he has an order for material for a uniform (Md. Arch. xvi 474; xxi 151). Capt. Ely Dorsey subsequently moved to Frederick Co., and died there 1821. He was married twice. 1st. wife mar. 26 Nov. 1778, was Sarah dau of John Worthington (d. 1790) and Susan (Hood) his wife. His 2nd. wife was Araminta, dau of William Cummings, Sr. and Margater(Thomas) his wife, had no children and died 1823.

Captn. Ely Dorsey and his first wife had issue:

Worley Line

Tradition and evidence point to Francis Worley, a surveyor, who came from England with William Penn in 1699, as the progenitor of this line in America, but an old Bible was destroyed, the link remains unforged, and we begin authentically with:

Greenberry Line

Over Severn from Annapolis the writer found three large grave slabs from which he copied:

Here lieth interred the body of Col. Nicholas Greenberry, who departed this life the 17 Day of December 1697.

Here lies interred the body of M. Ann Greenberry, who departed this life the 27 Day of April, 1698. Aetatis Duae 70.

The third stone, (as remembered after perhaps 30 years) was that of a Mr. Newton, a gentleman of London, of about the same date.

When informed of this, Mrs. Edith Worley Beatty took up the matter with the wife of her cousin, Dr. Montie Griffith, of Washington, as I recall, through whose influence the Greenberry slabs were removed to St. Anns Circle in Annapolis by a patriotic organization.

Col. Nicholas Greenberry B. 1627 came to the Province of Maryland with his wife, two children, and three servants in 1664 on the good ship, "Constant Friendship" and took up land on Greenberry Point, over Severn from Annapolis. He was keeper of the Great Seal, and Judge of the High Court of Chancery. His issue, as per the "Greenberry Bible", signed by him, at Myrtle Grove, now owned by Robert Goldsborough Henry was:

Charles Greenberry, B. prior to leaving England, viz. 1664-1666.
Katherine Greenberry, B. prior to leaving England, viz. 1664-1666.
Elizabeth Greenberry, B. Sept. 25, 1678. D. Mch. 3, 1719. m. Sept. 1697, Robert Goldsborough. Katherine m. 1st. Col. Henry Ridgely, & 2nd. John Howard, (of John & Susanna) whose dau. Katherine Howard m. Orlando Griffith, (Of William Griffith & Sarah MacCubbin.).

Col. Charles Greenberry m. Rachel Stimpson, (dau. of Thos. Stimpson & Rachel Beard, whose mother, Rachel Robins Beard wife of Richard, was dau. of Edward Robins, B. Eng. 1602, D. July, 1641) Probability, but no proof, this Charles was son of Nicholas Greenberry, here available. See MS. p. 6 R, Edith Worley Beatty Memorial, Md. Hist. Soc. Also pgs. 28R, 29R. for Goldsboro.

Beatty Line

The Beatty genealogy has been given in "The Ancestry of Leander Howard Crall", and in "Beatty-Asfordby", by Mrs. Samuel Turk, a copy of which will be deposited in the Edith Worley Beatty Memorial collection, at the Maryland Historical Society.

According to the spelling of the day, Asfordby is variously given as Afrabee, Affirby, Affenby, and Affordby. On the Asfordby chart, brought by William Asfordby to the Dutch colony in New York less than a century after it was certified by the Lincolnshire herald at arms in 1562, ten generations of Asfordby are shown, all using the long s, which has been confounded with f. A replica of this chart will be added to the Memorial Collection.

According to Tippers "Collection of Pedigrees," written in the Irish language in 1713, Goffrey, ancestor of the Beattys in North Ireland, went there from Scotland, and "fought with Brian Boru at the Battle of Clontarf, 1066." The 16th. generation from Goffrey first assumed the surname of Betagh, said to mean "public victualler."

Upon the restoration of Charles II, and his edict against dissenters, Edward Beatty or Beattie and his young son John fled to Holland from Ulster County, Ireland, later coming to New Amsterdam with a Dutch colony. Here the father disappears, but John, about 1691, married Susannah Asfordby, one of the four daughters of William Asfordby. Here the children were born. John died in 1721, and in 1730 Susannah and her family came to Maryland and settled on 2000 acres of land, acquired by grant and purchase. All but Robert, who remained in New York, and became the ancestor of Leander Howard Crall.

This land lay along the Monocacy River, about three miles North of the town of Frederick, whereon is still (1910) to be seen the old vault containing the remains of Susannah and William and several others while a few hundred yards further along the river are the walls of the old home. Williams' house is still occupied (see Scrap Book No. 1, Memorial Collection.) The graveyard is large, but few graves are marked, there being only six or eight stones, belonging to the Edward branch.

This Edward, John's son, married Susanna Cocke of Kingwood, West Jersey, and died 1755.

His son, Elijah, lost his first family, (wife and two children,) and married a handsome young woman when aged 62. He married Sarah Wigle in 1802, and his son was Afrabee Philip, born 1807, who died 1848. Elijah having died in 1817.

Afrabee Philip married, at All Saints church in Frederick, Sarah Trapnell, daughter of Joseph Trapnell, Sr., and his second wife, Harriet Wyldes, who was born in England. Joseph and his family came from Bemerton, Wiltshire 1810, Joseph having been born at Ottery St. Marys in Devonshire 1775. He died at St. Marks Rectory on the Merriland Tract 1870. Harriet was born 1790, married 1808, and died 1853. Their daughter Sarah, (born 1810? died 1864) who married Afrabee Philip, had issue.

Joseph Edward Beatty, born 1839, who became Assistant Surgeon of the 2nd. Maryland Regt., Army of the Potomac, at the age of twenty-two, and Regimental Surgeon a year later, going through the War with that organization.

A son of Rev. Joseph Trapnell, Sr. and Harriet was Joseph Trapnell, Jr., D.D., who graduated at St. Johns College at Annapolis and married Emily Green Watkins, and had issue Emily Trapnell, born 1840, who married her cousin, Surgeon Joseph Edward Beatty in 1864, and had issue.

In B. B. Thatcher's "Great Sovereigns, Heroes, and Pioneers, Lives of the Indians," Vol. 1, the following is quoted from Capt. John Smith's writings:
"The 12 of June, (approx. 1607 or 8) we fell in with the river Potowomek, and being led by two Salvages up a little bayed creek toward Onawmanaient where al the woodes were layd with ambuscadoes to the number of three or four thousand Salvages, so strangely paynted, grimed, and disgnised, shouting, yelling and crying as so many spirits from hell could not have showed more terrible."

The Indians drew their bows and Smith and his men prepared to meet them, but, "firing a number of shots along the water, the Indians were amazed and lay down their bows, and exchanging hostages, James Watkins was sent six myles up the woodes to their King's habitation." The King was "Japazaws."
